Strong Style MMA – Belt System

This is a 5-level belt system in Mixed Martial Arts for ALL experience levels. We have trained multiple world champion athletes on all levels of combat sports from the concepts and training methods in this program. This is a great system to learn all aspects of martial arts such as Boxing, Muay Thai, Jiu-Jitsu, Wrestling, Shootfighting and other effective forms of combat sports and self-defense. You will start at the white belt level and progress through the ranks for the goal of gaining your black belt.

If you have no experience, the coaches will help you learn the fundamentals in MMA. You can start at any class, at any level of experience. Each week you will learn a new MMA combination and go through various conditioning workouts to help get you in peak physical shape. All classes on this schedule labeled in Black and Gold are part of the Strong Style MMA Belt System. Taking other classes on our schedule is encouraged and will provide plenty of additional skills that can be used in this system.

Boxing/Striking Program

Boxing - A class primarily focused on technical boxing skills and cardio conditioning. You will learn offensive and defensive movements and techniques. Whether you want to compete or just learn the fine art of boxing, this is the class for you.

Muay Thai/Kickboxing - An “eight-point” fighting system that allows fighters to use fists, feet, knees and elbows to strike. The most devastating form of striking used in Mixed Martial Arts and the UFC.

Boxing Sparring - Students and athletes can only participate at Coaches discretion.

Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu/Grappling Program

Gi Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu - Although it contains stand-up movements, it is most famous for its devastating ground-fighting techniques. An art that relies on controlling opponents using body leverage to gain advantages through throws, takedowns, submissions, etc. (Gi uniform required – can be purchased at the front desk).

No-Gi Jiu-Jitsu - A class that consists of a mix of BJJ, Judo, Wrestling, Shootfighting and other similar martial arts.

Strong Style Athletics

Beginners to elite athletes welcomed. A workout geared towards getting you in peak physical shape. A constantly varied, functional training program. We focus on many key core movements and bodyweight exercises. We also use equipment such as:

Women's Boxing & Kickboxing
